

2020-2021 MAGAZINE FUND GUIDELINES

Ontario Creates understands that COVID-19 has created many challenges across the creative industries. While our 2020-21 program application processes and deadlines will remain unchanged, please note:

- Projects may address necessary COVID-19 responses, in keeping with the program objectives. Companies will be permitted to budget funds for operations-related costs, including salaries. Project outcomes should account for these types of necessary expenses.
- The cost of participating in virtual activities/events that facilitate international business and audience development will be eligible including costs associated with the preparation of marketing materials.
- As the COVID-19 situation evolves, successful applicants will be permitted to make activity changes as necessary.
- Please contact your program consultant in advance to discuss the specifics of your circumstances and projected deliverables.
- Section Three of the application form requires a breakdown of eligible sales revenue for the past 12 months to assess the eligible maximum level of funding available to the applicant. Due to recent sales impacts as a result of COVID-19, the parameters for eligible sales criteria have been adjusted for the May 28 application deadline.
Applicants have the option to base eligible sales on either the past 12 months or an average of eligible sales for the previous two fiscal years.

The Ontario Creates Magazine Fund is designed to increase the financial viability and overall business growth of the Ontario magazine media industry.

Funding will be provided to support projects that have clear, objective and measurable results and/or indicate direct and positive impact on the overall long-term business growth of the magazine publisher. Priority results include enhancement of publisher revenues and the creation/retention of jobs in the Ontario publishing industry. Ontario Creates will measure results of the program based on return on investment and jobs created and retained.

Ontario Creates values and supports diversity and gender parity within creative industries. The evaluation criteria for this program includes a bonus score for activities that support and reflect diversity and gender parity in Ontario, and/or applications from Francophone, Indigenous, culturally and otherwise diverse applicants.

Ontario Creates is committed to fostering respectful workplaces in all sectors and companies we support. A respectful workplace is one that values diversity and inclusion, dignity, courteous conduct, fairness, positive communication and professional working relationships. 4. Partnership and Group Projects

Partnership projects

Partners may be involved in your project. An eligible partner must be:

- one or more content creation companies from the book and magazine, film and television, interactive digital media, or music industries that was eligible to submit an application at the immediately preceding deadline for one of Ontario Creates’s Content, Marketing or Export Funds, or the Ontario Music Fund;

- a Canadian-owned and -controlled organization.

The profit-participation share of the partners should be in appropriate proportion to the ownership of the project and should conform to standard industry practices. Please note that preference may be given to projects that are substantially owned by Ontario-based organizations. If you are considering working with a partner, please contact Ontario Creates in advance of your application.

Group Projects

Projects involving a number of magazine publishers are eligible. Each magazine publisher involved in the group project must meet all eligibility criteria. Each applicant must submit a complete application identifying their specific roles and responsibilities and referencing the other publishers attached to the project.

One lead applicant must be identified as the key contact for all communication regarding the application. Ontario Creates must be contacted at least four weeks in advance of submitting a group application to review the proposed project.

5. Eligible Projects and Activities

A publisher may submit an application for either one specific magazine title or for a group of magazines the applicant publishes.

Publishing companies who own more than one title may submit up to two applications. The total requested funding amount cannot exceed the Total Funding Available per Applicant (see the Table on page 10).

Group publishers are responsible for ensuring that a maximum of two applications are submitted to the Magazine Fund. As above, the total requested funding amount of the two applications combined must not exceed the Total Funding Available.

All projects must:

- be an activity not already underway at the time of submitting the application or, if for an existing activity already in progress, demonstrate how funding would enhance the scope and impact of the activity (expenses incurred prior to the application being submitted are not eligible);
- be focused on driving sales and increasing publisher revenue in a tangible and measurable manner and/or improving operational efficiencies and productivity (expected return on investment is a key criterion for the jury in their review of the applications), or expected direct and positive impact on the Company's overall business strategy must be stated; and
- must be completed with Final Reports submitted by February 18, 2022.

Applicant companies that are receiving support for a specific activity through another Ontario Creates program are not eligible to receive additional support through the Ontario Creates Magazine Fund for the same activity.

Projects can include, but are not limited to:

- re-launch/re-brand projects;
- circulation projects – such as direct mail campaigns, request circulation development, insert cards, subscription renewal, promotional campaigns, newsstand projects;
- advertising sales projects – such as media kits or promotional material;

- development of a digital transformation strategy/business plan. As this is a competitive program, include as much detail as possible of how this plan would be researched, developed and implemented, and the expected outcomes

Special Note for publishers proposing circulation projects: While circulation projects by their nature often have a multi-year cycle, if Ontario Creates has previously funded a circulation project through the Ontario Creates Magazine Fund, a circulation project for this current round must be significantly enhanced and/or different to the previous one. You must ensure that you will be able to identify and report financial results unique to the specific circulation activity proposed in your application.

5. a. International Business Development

Attendance at key international industry markets and events, planned sales trips to meet with identified leads, and export development activities. It is not necessary for international business development activities to relate directly to other project activities detailed in the application for the Magazine Fund. However, activities must correspond to a strategy, described in the application, for the company's content creation and exploitation activities, and produce measurable results.

At least one of the participating representatives at each activity must be a decision maker at the executive level within the applicant company. Companies are advised to choose the individual(s) best suited to take advantage of this opportunity. To be eligible, company representatives must:

- be working full time with the applicant company (external consultants are ineligible);
- be Canadian citizens or landed immigrants / permanent residents; and
- be Ontario residents.

6. Budget, Financing and Timeline Requirements

A budget template has been created that must be used to provide the budget details for your project(s). Only EXCEL documents will be accepted (no PDFs).

Eligible Project Budget Expenses

Eligible costs directly associated with the project must be included in the budget detail. Ontario Creates Magazine Fund can represent up to 75% of the total budget, with the remaining 25% of the total budget from the publisher and/or other funding sources including other government sources, and third party participation (such as retail partners).

Please note: budgets MUST be submitted on the excel budget template provided on the website and the OAP. No PDFs or alternate formats will be accepted. The template consists of three separate tabs: Project Budget, International Business Development Budget, and Financing. The Financing template must be completed. Any expenses related to business travel outside of Canada must be listed in the International Business Development Budget tab.

Funding from other sources, including from the magazine publisher, should have an accompanying letter of intent indicating commitment to the project and ability to finance the portion of the budget indicated in the application.

Realistically valued “in-kind” services may be included as part or all of the 25% costs that must come from sources other than the Ontario Creates Magazine Fund.

If outside services are required for the project, please include quotes from providers and a rationale for their selection.

Ineligible Expenses

Expenses that are ongoing operational costs are not eligible. For a project which is an enhancement of activity already underway, expenses incurred to date are not eligible.

For digital projects and/or projects with digital components, capital expenses related directly to the project (i.e., hardware, software) may be included to a maximum of 15% of the total project budget.

Expenses incurred prior to the application being submitted are not eligible. The only exception is costs related to the development of a digital transformation strategy/business plan, or components thereof, that is the foundation of the application. If the application is not successful, Ontario Creates will not support these costs.

Ineligible expenses include costs associated with:

- salaries and wages of staff not directly related to the project;
- staff benefit costs;
- fixed overhead costs (such as machine costs: telephone, photocopier, computer); however, costs for long distance phone, paper costs, couriers and other expenses directly related to the project may be included;

- occupancy costs (rent or mortgage of facilities); and
- hospitality.

For activities related to International Business Activities

Companies must complete the budget template summarizing all eligible expenses including:

- Market Costs - Including registration and booth/exhibitor expenses;
- Travel Costs - Including flight and local transportation. Air travel should be budgeted at economy rates and should reflect the costs of booking at least 30 days in advance of travel;
- Accommodation Costs - Hotel expenses should be at moderate per night rates and should reflect the average for the travel destination/activity. Ontario Creates will relate to accommodation expenses for a maximum of three days on either side of an event to pursue business development activities - appropriate detail must be provided in the application. Please contact Ontario Creates prior to application to discuss;
- Per Diems - Capped at C$75/day. Including daily meals and incidentals. Ontario Creates will relate to per diem expenses for a maximum of three days on either side of an event to pursue business development activities - appropriate detail must be provided in the application. Please contact Ontario Creates prior to application to discuss; and
- Marketing Materials - Including design, production and shipping material specifically created for the proposed activities. Acceptable marketing materials include activity-specific printed catalogs, event program advertisements, post cards, flyers/one sheets, product samples and demos. Capped at 25% of eligible expenses per event.

While companies may be incurring additional expenses that do not correspond with the categories above, these costs should not be included in the budget. The amount of the Ontario Creates contribution will be based only on the eligible expenses listed above.

Ineligible Expenses for International Business Activities

Expenses that are considered ineligible for the purpose of this program include:

- Hospitality and entertainment costs;
- Core business costs such as design and printing of business cards and standard catalogs;
- Communications costs such as mobile phone rental and fees, long distance fees, etc.; and
- Costs associated with ineligible company representatives and additional representatives over and above the cap for this program.

Ontario Creates Funding

Eligible applicants may apply for funding based on their level of eligible sales revenue.

Ontario Creates funding can represent a maximum of 75% of the project budget. There are caps on the maximum funding levels based on the applicant company's eligible sales revenue, which is defined for the purposes of this program as all magazine revenues including ad sales, subscriptions, and related brand extension of the core magazine business (i.e., events, website, television properties, content syndication).

Grants, funding and donations are not considered revenue for the purpose of this program and should not be included when calculating eligible sales revenue.

Publishers may apply for the following levels of funding, based on eligible sales revenue:

Eligible Sales Revenues	Total Funding Available per Applicant
Over $2,000,000	(up to) $75,000
$500,001 to $2,000,000	(up to) $65,000
$140,001 to $500,000	(up to) $40,000
$20,000 to $140,000	(up to) $35,000

 For publishers with eligible sales revenues of less than $140,000, the total request for funding from this program should be in reasonable proportion to overall eligible sales revenue – i.e., approximately 25% of your eligible revenue.

UPDATED**

Section Three of the application form requires a breakdown of eligible sales revenue for the past 12 months to assess the eligible maximum level of funding available to the applicant. Due to recent sales impacts as a result of COVID-19, the parameters for eligible sales criteria have been adjusted for the May 28 application deadline. Applicants have the option to base eligible sales on either the past 12 months or an average of eligible sales for the previous two fiscal years.

The number of applicants who will receive funding, and the amount of the funding received, is dependent on the total amount of funding for the program, and the quantity and quality of projects selected by the jury. This is a competitive application process. A jury of industry experts will review and recommend which eligible applications will receive funding from this program.
